Hebrews 2:10-18

- ¹⁰ For it was fitting that he, for whom and by whom all things exist, in bringing many sons to glory, should make the founder of their salvation perfect through suffering. ¹¹ For he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one source. ^[a] That is why he is not ashamed to call them brothers, ^[b] ¹² saying,
 - “I will tell of your name to my brothers; in the midst of the congregation I will sing your praise.”
 - ¹³ And again, “I will put my trust in him.” And again, “Behold, I and the children God has given me.”
 - ¹⁴ Since therefore the children share in flesh and blood, he himself likewise partook of the same things, that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, ¹⁵ and deliver all those who through fear of death were subject to lifelong slavery. ¹⁶ For surely it is not angels that he helps, but he helps the offspring of Abraham. ¹⁷ Therefore he had to be made like his brothers in every respect, so that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. ¹⁸ For because he himself has suffered when tempted, he is able to help those who are being tempted.

The Pandemic? We are all infected

'Virus' of sin.

Max Lucado

No culture, no nation, no person sidesteps the infection of sin. You can blame the plague of sin on a godless decision. Adam and Eve ignored God's will...and sin, with death on its coattails,

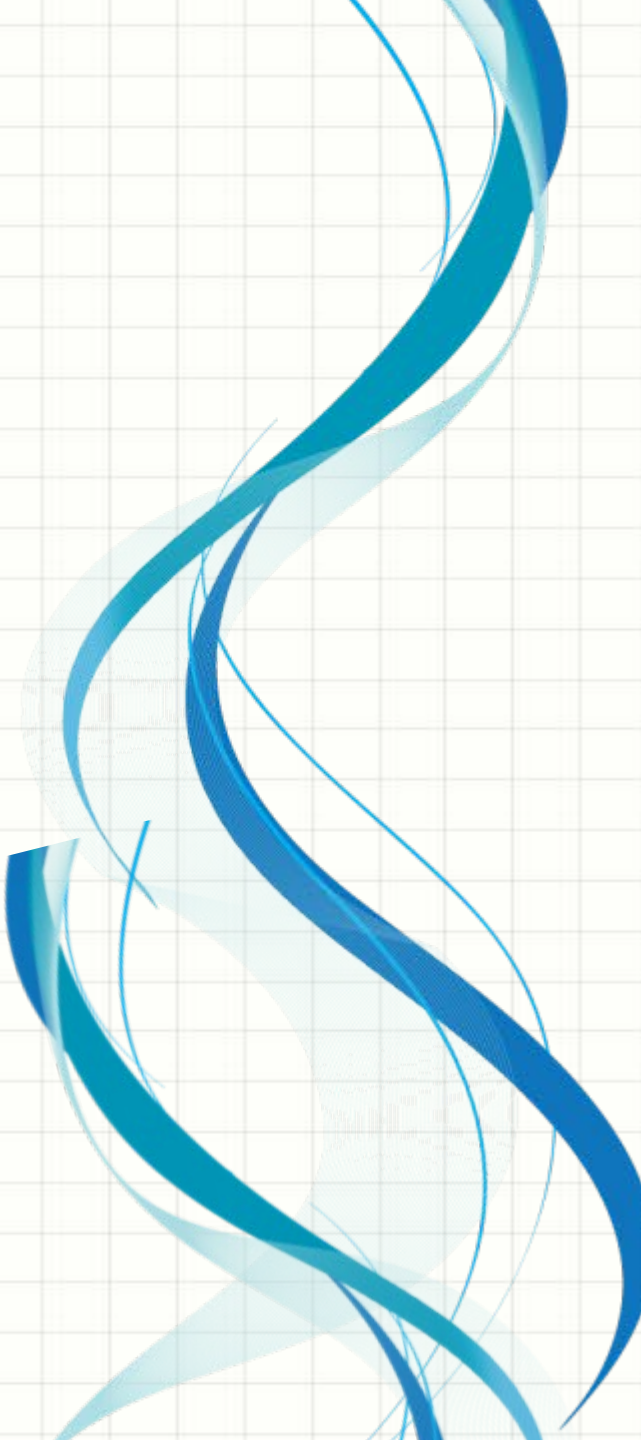

Romans 8:22-23

²² For we know that the whole creation has been groaning together in the pains of childbirth until now. ²³ And not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for adoption as sons, the redemption of our bodies

The New Covenant (Jeremiah 31:3)

3. ...the LORD appeared to him from far away.
I have loved you with an everlasting love;...

Murdoch Campbell, M.A.

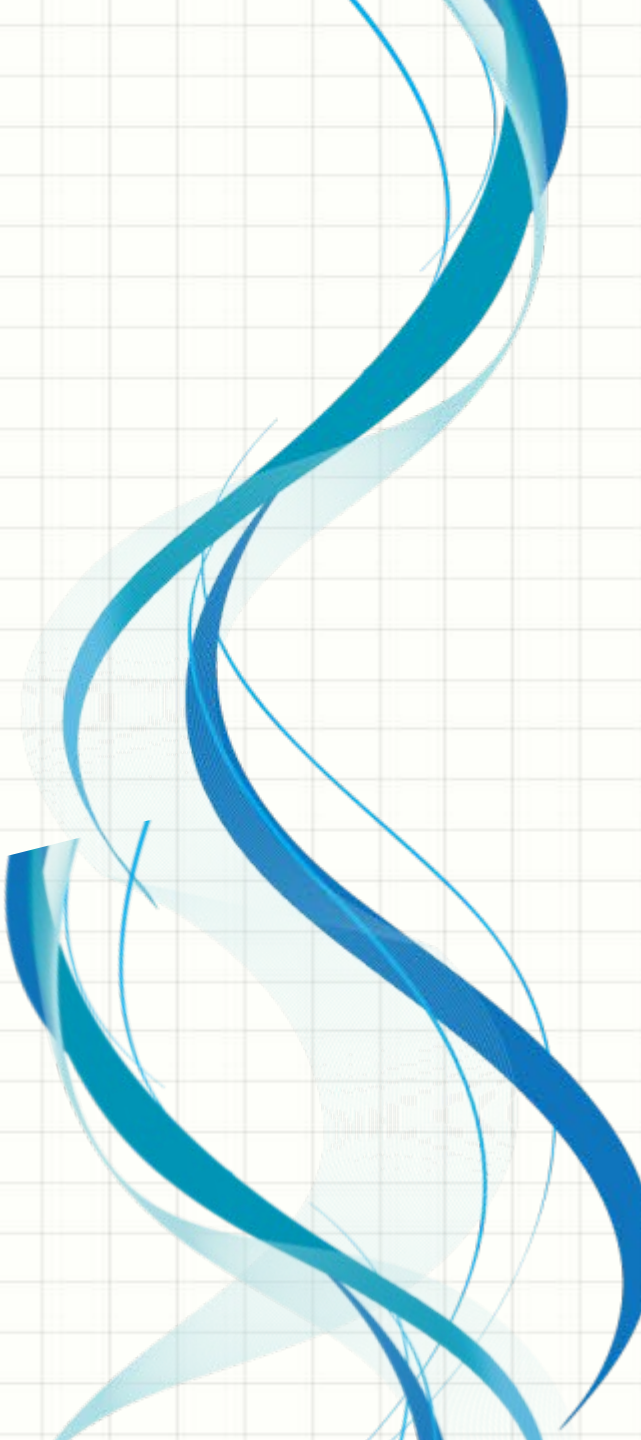

“everlasting” means something which, like a river, is ever flowing. It is the river of His “good pleasure”,

His love flows on through eternal ages without a beginning or an end.

The present tense in this phrase implies a beginningless and endless continuity.

It is infinite, or like a sea without a shore. It is unchangeable or like an ocean which is always at full tide. It is unfathomable in its depth, and unsearchable in the mystery of its grace and choice.

“God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son,”
And God “who spared not his own Son but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things?”

of the 'Virus' of Sin

Romans 8:1-4

1 So now there is no condemnation for those who belong to Christ Jesus. 2 And because you belong to him, the power of the life-giving Spirit has freed you from the power of sin that leads to death.

... So God did what the law could not do. He sent his own Son in a body like the bodies we sinners have. And in that body God declared an end to sin's control over us by giving his Son as a sacrifice for our sins. 4 He did this so that the just requirement of the law would be fully satisfied for us, who no longer follow our sinful nature but instead follow the Spirit.
